Brooks Memorial Library Seeks Trustees

The Board of Library Trustees of Brooks Memorial Library seeks enthusiastic and dedicated library users to fill two open positions on the Board.

Candidates for this position should have an interest in maintaining a strong and visionary library in Town. Trustees must be residents of Brattleboro.

The Board, which numbers nine trustees, meets at the Library from 4:45 p.m. to 6:45PM on the second Tuesday of the month. Members are asked to chair or serve on two or more committees that convene as needed.

For more information on the library, please visit the web site: <http://brookslibraryvt.org>, and click on "About Brooks," where library history, the most recent strategic plan, summary, Trustee agendas, minutes and committees are available.

Applicants should send a letter or email and resume describing their interest in serving on the Library Board no later than January 30, 2015, at 5 PM.
